IFIP IoT

6th IFIP International Internet of Things Conference (IFIP-IoT)

The IFIP International Internet of Things (IoT) Conference is the annual event of IFIP totally dedicated to IoT research, innovations, and applications. The sixth conference in the series continues to put emphasis on the multidisciplinary nature of the IoT world. Sponsorship of an international conference represents an organization's innovations, developments, and capabilities of the world of eminent scientists and engineers who are from academia and industry. The opportunities of IFIP International Internet of Things Conference (IFIP-IoT) sponsorship are available on a first-come, first-serve basis. So, organizations are advised to reserve the opportunity that spotlights the organization's name. The following table gives a summary of benefits that possibly an organization can get at IFIP-IoT.
